

Unicorn and Pegasus Make a Cake- by Asha Farkas

Once upon a time, there was a unicorn named Jenny. She wanted to have a playdate with her friend Pegasus. Her mom called Pegasus' mom and they organized a play date. The next day, Pegasus came to Unicorn's house. "Unicorn, do you want to fly on my back?" asked Pegasus. "Yeah!" said Unicorn and they went for a ride.

When they came back Unicorn said, "Pegasus do you want to make a cake?" "Sure!" said Pegasus. They got eggs, flour, butter and sugar and measured the ingredients. "Let's put pink frosting and flowers on it!" said Pegasus. "Yes! And rainbows!" said Unicorn. "it's going to taste so good!" While they mixed the cake Pegasus said, "Making a cake is hard work." Unicorn said, "I can't wait to eat it!"

They poured the batter into the pan, and Unicorn carried it to the oven. But she fell and cake batter went everywhere! "Oh no!" said Pegasus. "Are you ok?" Unicorn started to cry and said, "We worked so hard and now it's a big mess!" Pegasus and Unicorn felt very sad. Pegasus said "It's ok Unicorn, we can clean up with magic!" Sparkly gold beams came from Pegasus and Poof! The whole kitchen was clean. "Wow!" said Unicorn. "Let's make the cake with magic too!" Sparkly gold light came from Unicorn and Pegasus and then poof! A beautiful cake was on the table, with pink frosting and white flowers and rainbows. Unicorn said, "it looks so good!" and Pegasus cut them both pieces.

Unicorn took a bite and made a gross face. She said, "It looks good, but it doesn't taste very good." Pegasus chewed cake and then said "Maybe we have to make it again by hand. It doesn't taste good because it doesn't have hard work and love". "Ok, it'll be fun to make it again!" said Unicorn.

So Unicorn and Pegasus got the ingredients, measured everything and mixed it in a bowl and put it in the oven. When it was done, they put pink frosting and rainbow sprinkles. Pegasus cut them both pieces and Unicorn got forks and plates. "Wow Unicorn," said Pegasus "this is the best cake I've ever had!" "Me too" said Unicorn. "I can't wait to give a piece to my mommy and daddy. They will be so proud of us because we didn't give up and we made a whole cake by ourselves without magic!"